WAKE UP WITH TODAY IN BANNA AVENUE

The news it out! Griffith will be in the national spotlight on Tuesday 10 October 2023 when the Today Show weather goes live from the Real Juice Company Citrus Sculptures in Banna Avenue.

The Tourism Team is thrilled to showcase our region to a national audience and promote the local charm of the Griffith community to viewers across Australia.

The Real Juice Company Citrus Sculptures will serve as a beautiful backdrop and a platform to promote Griffith Spring Fest, our flagship event that kicks off this Sunday 8 October 2023. The Today Show's much loved weather reporter Tim Davies will be providing his live weather updates while engaging with members of the community.

"We invite everyone to join this remarkable morning to demonstrate the warmth and local spirit of Griffith on one of Australia's most loved breakfast shows," Griffith City Council Events Coordinator, Izabella Apolloni said.

"The live broadcast will commence at 5.40am with the closing scene wrapping up at approximately 8.40am.

"We invite the whole community to join us bright and early and enjoy the fun and be part of the crowd. There will be a coffee van on site to give you that extra morning kick and plenty of interactive activities to entertain your morning."

The Tourism Team encourages you to be a part of this unforgettable day and celebrate Griffith's unique character as we take centre stage and promote our region.
