

Escape to Griffith

Visit Griffith, a thriving oasis is the heart of the Riverina, abundant with fresh produce, fine wine, dining experiences and warm hospitality.

Perfectly positioned along the Kidman and Burley Griffin ways, and a convenient detour from the Sturt and Newell highways, Griffith is the ideal diversion for a burst of culture along your inland adventure.

Treat yourself to a regional escape, and enjoy a range of local attractions tailored to suit every interest. Explore the outdoors, heritage sites and cultural museums, or delve into the local cuisine and wines, with endless cellar doors and dining experiences to choose from.

Griffith's picturesque tree-lined main street, Banna Avenue, stretches over several blocks, and offers a unique shopping experience for all. The local boutiques boast an impressive selection of Australian and international brands in clothing, gifts and homewares. Elevate your experience with a visit to one of the opulent day spas, followed by a seat at one of the many charming cafes and restaurants for the perfect day out.

Journey through Griffith's diverse cellar door scene, from its larger producers to its intimate boutique wineries. Whether you like a fruity white or a bold red, or if gin is more your thing, Griffith offers a cellar door experience tailored to satisfy every palate.

Aside from the abundance of food and wine, Griffith has blossomed into a vibrant arts and cultural hub within the region. Take a deep dive into history with a visit to Pioneer Park Museum, or venture to Scenic Hill to discover Hermit's Cave. The Banna Lane murals, Griffith Regional Art Gallery and Griffith Regional Theatre all offer a glimpse into the talent and culture that contributes to Griffith's unique character.

Get back into nature and explore Griffith's outdoors with a bushwalk through Cocoparra National Park, or enjoy a picnic at Lake Wyangan – complete with barbecue facilities and a variety of bird species for twitchers to discover. Golf and swimming facilities, and cycling and walking tracks are also available for locals and visitors to enjoy all year round.

Experience the warm embrace of a welcoming community with a tapestry of outdoor adventures, cultural experiences, and a culinary scene to savour. Taste the town's culture and let Griffith unveil a world of delights for every traveller. Your regional escape awaits!

IMAGE © VISIT GRIFFITH