Griffith comes alive with a packed events calendar and Easter celebrations

As the weather starts to cool with the arrival of autumn, Griffith is preparing for a vibrant season of events from March to May, all captured in the new Autumn What's On Guide.

From live entertainment and festivals to cultural experiences and community gatherings, there is something for everyone to enjoy. The guide is available to download online at visitgriffith.com.au, making it easy to plan your next outing.

Kicking off the season is the much-loved Griffith Easter Party, running from 2 to 6 April 2026. The five-day celebration features an exciting line-up of family-friendly entertainment, activities, markets, along with local wine and food experiences. With events designed for all ages, it promises a fantastic Easter long weekend in Griffith.

Griffith Mayor, Councillor Doug Curran, said it was wonderful to see such a strong calendar of events again this year.

"There are so many great activities for the entire family to enjoy this Easter. If you can't find something to do, you're not looking hard enough," Councillor Curran said.

"Please support our local operators. With so much happening across Griffith, I encourage everyone to book ahead and plan their weekend. Easter is a very special time in our city."
