Don't miss out - start planning your A Taste of Italy Griffith experience now!

Those planning to experience the flavours, traditions and warm hospitality of A Taste of Italy Griffith are being encouraged to get in early, with tickets and accommodation expected to sell out quickly ahead of this year's festival from 24 to 30 August 2026.

Visitors and locals alike are urged to explore the exciting program and start planning their week now to avoid missing out on the many events, experiences and special offers available throughout the week!

New additions to this year's program include Sagra Italiana at Piccolo Family Farm, Musica al Museo at Griffith Pioneer Park Museum & Italian Museum, and Pauly J – Ti Ricordi at Griffith Regional Theatre, each adding new opportunities to celebrate Griffith's rich Italian heritage through Italian music.

Griffith City Council Tourism Manager, Mirella Guidolin, said this year's program is shaping up to be one of the biggest and most exciting yet.

"We encourage everyone to jump online and explore the full program of events, experiences and special offers now available," Ms Guidolin said.

"A Taste of Italy Griffith continues to grow in popularity each year, attracting visitors from right across Australia who come to experience our region's incredible food, wine and vibrant Italian culture."

"This year's program is bigger and better than ever, with something to suit every taste and budget. We've worked very closely with local businesses to really showcase just how much there is to see and do - whether you're enjoying a spritz or pizza special at one of the local cafes and restaurants, taking part in a cooking class or dancing the tarantella - there's an experience waiting for everyone."

"Many events sell out quickly and accommodation is already filling fast, so we encourage people to secure their tickets, book their stay and start planning their A Taste of Italy Griffith itinerary today."
