Griffith prepares to welcome visitors for triple j's One Night Stand

Griffith is gearing up for one of the biggest weekends in the city's history, with an estimated 8,000 visitors expected to travel to Griffith for triple j's One Night Stand at Griffith Showground on Saturday, 5 September. Based on available ticketing figures, visitors are expected to make up the majority of attendees.

The event is an all-ages, drug and alcohol-free outdoor music festival, operating from 2.30pm to 10pm.

Residents are encouraged to plan ahead as increased traffic volumes are anticipated across the city, particularly around the Griffith Showground precinct, accommodation venues, the CBD and key transport routes.

Road closure: Murrumbidgee Avenue between Merrigal Street and Coolah Street will be closed from 7am to 11pm on Saturday, 5 September. Murrumbidgee Avenue will be reserved for official event shuttle buses and private charter buses, with traffic detours in place nearby and a reduced 40km/h speed limit.

If you're getting dropped off and picked up, head to Willandra Avenue which is around a 700m walk to the entry.

Taxis and rideshares are minimal in Griffith, so local shuttle buses will also be running with stops around the town centre. Anyone with a valid One Night Stand ticket can hop on and off the local shuttle bus.

Local shuttle buses will be picking up and dropping off at the following stops every 15-30 minutes from 1pm throughout the day:

- Griffith Court House, Banna Avenue
- Griffith CWA Hall, Banna Avenue
- Yambil Street Bus Stop
- Jondaryan Avenue
- Ted Scobie Sports Oval, Clifton Blvd.
- Jubilee Oval - Wyangan Avenue (near Tennis Courts)
- Griffith Regional Sports Centre, Merrowie Street

Visitors will be arriving throughout the weekend, providing a significant boost for local businesses, accommodation providers, restaurants, cafes and retailers.

Residents are encouraged to:

- Allow extra time when travelling around Griffith on Saturday
- Follow all traffic management and parking signage
- Be mindful of increased pedestrian activity throughout the CBD and around transport pick-up locations
- Consider supporting local businesses and helping visitors experience the best of Griffith

The event represents a significant opportunity for Griffith to showcase its renowned food and wine offerings, attractions and welcoming community to a national audience.

Council thanks residents, businesses and volunteers for their support and cooperation in helping make the event a memorable experience for visitors and locals alike.

Tickets are still available for triple j's One Night Stand, online and available to purchase at the gate. Ticket prices start from $10 plus booking fee for under 16s and $15 plus booking fee for patrons aged 16 and over.
